In censequence of the numerous frauds and impositions practised in reference to my medicins, I am again induced to change the form of my bot tles. In future, the Panacea will be put up in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following words blown in the glass, "Swaim's Panacea—Philada."

These bottles are much stronger

These battles are much stronger than those heretofore used, and will have but one label, which covers the cork, with my own signature on it, so that the cork cannot be drawn without destroying the signature, without which none is genuire. The medicine must consequently be known to be genuine when my signature is visible; to counterfeit which, will be punishable as forgery.

The increasing demand for this ce lebrated medicine has enabled me to reduce the price to two dollars per bot tle, thus bringing it within the reach of the indigent.

My panacea requires no encomium; its astonishing effects and wonderful operation, have drawn, both from Patients and Medical Practitioners of the highest respectability, the most unqua lified approbation, and established for it a character, which envy's pen, tho

Granberry, Middlesex County, N. J. January 17th, 1829.
Mr. William Swalm, Philadelphia, Sir.—Being for a few days at this place, and having heard astonishing accounts of the cure of Mrs. Sarah Applegate, of a disease efficie had befiled the akill of the best-sphysicians, for seven years. I determined to call and be convinced if it were strictly true. I found her enjoying good health. true. I found her enjoying good health, which she assured me had been the case for the last three years—from the time she had been cured by the use of Swaim's Panacea.

The herrid ravages made by the disease, are of course visible, and the lower extremities present an appear ance which beggars description; that discuss in any form could make such inroads on the human system without producing death, is as astonishing as it is wonderful. She informs me that in June, 1818 a tumor formed imme-diately below the knee, which was ex-tremely painful, the unsainess and swelling of it caused her so much slarm, that she applied to a medical gentleman for wellef The tumor o-pened, and was succeeded by many others, until the whole limb was covered with large corroding ulcers .-Medical skill was entirely unavailing to check the progress of the disease and the patient was reduced to a most deplorable condition, the flesh seemed to be separated from the bones—the immense discharge from so many ul cers, completely prostrated the pa-tient's strength, her appetite was gone; and nature nearly exhausted.

In this state of misery Mrs Apple-gate passed under the hands of several skilful Physicians, without experienc-The Proprietor pledges himself to the public, and gives them the most solemn assurances, that this medicine contains neither mercury, nor any of ther deleterious drug.

Wm SVAIM.
Philadelphia, Sept. 1828
From Doctor Valentine Mott, Profes compound fracture of the hip. Under this accumulation of misery and suffering she lingured two years. Her bones and integuments were laid bare. large pieces of the remaining flesh she had were constantly sloughing out, and her situation was wretched and contained the suffering she had been described by the suffering she had been described by the suffering she had been described by the suffering she with the said excluded from all benefit of the s pitiable beyond comparison, cheered by no ray of hops, doomed to wear a way a miserable existence, and hourly wishing for death. She was told by some of her friends that Swaim's Panacea would, if any thing could, relieve her Mrs Applegate consented to remove, and did remove to Philadelphia; this removal was with difficulty accomplished, and she remained, as you may recollect, under your care for about two weeks Being at the end of that time convalescent, she returned pitiable beyond comparison, cheered by no ray of hope, doomed to wear a way a miserable existence, and hourly astonishment created by her return in the minds of all who had seen her during the seven years of her suffer ings. She was soon, to general admiration, restored to perfect health Thus, Sir, by the use of your Pana cea, which is acknowledged to be one I cheerfully add my testimony in ia-voor of Mr Swaim's Panacea, as a remedy in Scrofula. I saw two invo-terate cases perfectly cured by it, after the usual remedies had been long tried the usual remedies had been long tried income Mrs A was cured, since that time she has become the happy me ther of a daughter, and a finer or healthier infant I never beheld. This fact, while it is a convincing proof of the efficacy of your medicine in removing affections that originate from impurity of the blood, is equally con-vincing that it regenerates and invigo rates all the vital principles and func tions of humanity.

This case should be published—it is your interest to publish it, & it is for the benefit of the whole human family, that such astonishing and well authenticated facts be made known; although, perhaps to those who are already acquainted with the virtues of Swalm's Panacea. it may not be necessary, yet believe me there are yet numbers entirely ignorant of its many virtues, and power ful restorative properties, who are la bouring under all the horrors of dis-ease, that for their benefit alone such
